ANZAC DAY 2022 – LEST WE FORGET

ANZAC Day on Monday 25 April 2022 marks the 107th anniversary of the landings at Gallipoli.

Tweed Heads & Coolangatta RSL Sub-Branch invites the community to come together at Chris Cunningham Park beside Twin Towns for the Dawn Service, the ANZAC Day March and the Main Service. Details and times are listed below. For updates, check the Sub-Branch website.

Tweed Heads & Coolangatta RSL Sub-Branch President Dr John Griffin said close to a million Australians served in World War II.

“The number of surviving World War II vets has declined significantly over the past few years as we would expect. Our Sub-Branch has 256 members over 85 years of age.

“It’s encouraging though to see increasing participation on ANZAC Day by veterans who served in recent conflicts and peacekeeping operations and those currently serving in our Defence Forces, supported by their families.

“We hope to see thousands of people of all ages at the services this year, coming together to ensure the deeds and sacrifices of our veterans are honoured and never forgotten,” said Dr Griffin.

ANZAC DAY MARCH ROUTE

THE OASIS, A NEW PLACE FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY AT CLUB BANORA

Preliminary designs reveal some of the most popular elements from the early days of Oasis will be 'reinvented and modernised' to suit a new generation of Banora residents.

The pool bar will return, along with outdoor dining and a splash pad for the youngest of Club visitors. There will also be a large outdoor play area for kids. The existing Olympic pool will be retained and a new 'learn to swim' centre built.

A giant outdoor screen which can be viewed from the lawn and dining area is also part of the plan. Parents can relax with a drink and a meal and watch the footy or a movie, while the kids play.

Diners will be able to order meals from Slice and Fork to enjoy outdoors and an area has been allocated for additional food trucks and popup dining on weekends and holidays. This will add to the diversity of food choices at Club Banora, which was a strong message in the research.

Twin Towns CEO Rob Smith said that after the planning process was announced, there was some concern about the new direction.

PLANS ARE ON THE DRAWING BOARD TO TRANSFORM THE 35-YEAR-OLD OASIS POOLS COMPLEX AT CLUB BANORA INTO A NEW OUTDOOR MEETING PLACE, WITH A WAVE OF CONTEMPORARY FEATURES AND FACILITIES TO CATER FOR KIDS OF ALL AGES, AND PARENTS TOO.

The Board is pleased to now be in a position to share the exciting plans for the future.

"Before we could discuss the plans, we needed to let the consultants undertake their work and present their recommendations, ensuring that the plans were also the right fit for the local community.

"We engaged a highly regarded market research consultancy that specialises in hospitality venues to undertake analysis and conduct surveys locally, to enable us to gain insight into why some locals came to Club Banora, and why some didn't.

"We've learned more about the key drivers of visitation to Club Banora and what we could do to broaden its appeal to new markets, while still retaining the already popular features of the Club.

"Oasis is the end result of this research; a family-friendly facility that will be more in tune with the needs of the emerging and young, dynamic Banora and Tweed communities," said Rob.

There is still a large amount of work to be performed in assessing the older aspects of the facility and then the Club can commence detailed planning.

It is hoped the Development Application for Oasis will be submitted to Tweed Shire Council later this year. The Club anticipates the project will commence in 2023.

Work on the retail component of the Banora Masterplan is still underway. The previous plan is being updated to reflect the findings of the Land and Environment Court and better suit the changing demography of Banora Point. This may take some time to finalise

MEMBERS VOTE ON NAME CHANGE

AT TWIN TOWNS ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING ON TUESDAY 17 MAY, MEMBERS WILL BE ASKED TO VOTE ON SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS RELATING TO THE REPLACEMENT OF THE EXISTING CONSTITUTION AND THE MODERNISATION OF THE CLUB'S NAME.

Regular updating of the Constitution ensures the Club remains at the forefront of governance, management practices and compliance requirements. The Registered Clubs Act has been updated and these changes now need to be reflected in the Twin Towns Constitution.

Rather than deal with many individual changes, the Board agreed the best option was to replace the entire document.

Along with the changes to the Constitution, members will also be asked separately to consider a second Special Resolution to change the name of the Club to better reflect the contemporary position the Club holds in the community.

Twin Towns Community Club

Special resolution 8 (f) refers to a change of name to Twin Towns Community Club.

In the new Constitution, the objects have been changed to reflect the broader group who provide public service, objects which signify Twin Towns' community involvement beyond just the ex-services community.

Regardless of whether the members support the change of name, this new objective goes further and is more respectful of all those who serve in the community.

Chairman Brian Brown said the new name solidifies Twin Towns' role in the community. "We are not just an RSL Club, we are bigger and broader than that."

"Twin Towns is constantly out there in the community. We give over and above back to the community, we also have our own Twin Towns Community Foundation, set up specifically to fund and assist community projects.

"We offer ongoing financial assistance to community organisations and individuals in need and strongly support the Tweed Heads & Coolangatta RSL Sub-Branch, based here at the Club, and nothing in that regard will change," said Brian.

The Board agreed there has always been confusion amongst the general public about the relationship between Twin Towns, the 'Services Club' part of the name, and Twin Towns' connection with the RSL Sub-Branch.

Tweed Heads & Coolangatta RSL

Sub-Branch President, Dr John Griffin, expects RSL members will understand and appreciate the name change, acknowledging that confusion has always existed, even amongst their own members.

The Board believes the proposed name takes Twin Towns beyond the Services Community to the entire community.

"It will always be Twin Towns, Twinnies, the RSL Club. We know people will continue to call it whatever they like," said the Board Chairman.

"But as it has done for the past 65 years, Twin Towns will continue to stand alongside its community, and if members agree, the name Twin Towns Community Club will say it all."

"It will always be Twin Towns, Twinnies, the RSL Club. We know people will continue to call it whatever they like,"

TWIN TOWNS DIGS DEEP TO SUPPORT LOCALS AFFECTED BY FLOOD CRISIS

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF TWIN TOWNS SERVICES CLUB VOTED UNANIMOUSLY LAST MONTH TO DONATE $200,000 TO THE SALVATION ARMY FLOOD APPEAL, WITH ONE SPECIAL REQUEST: THE DONATION IS USED TO PROVIDE MUCH-NEEDED SUPPORT SERVICES FOR PEOPLE IN THE LOCAL TWEED AND NORTHERN RIVERS COMMUNITIES.

The Board acknowledged that the unprecedented floods left many local people displaced and in desperate need of assistance.

More flooding rain brought another wave of destruction in late March and Twin Towns Board Chairman Brian Brown said many families are struggling to get back on their feet.

“Some of Twin Towns’ staff have been affected by the floods, along with many of our members.

Some of their homes were literally picked up by the floodwaters and swept away. They have nothing.

“It’s heartbreaking to hear their stories but also heart-warming to see the true community spirit at work, locals helping locals, giving up their time and resources to do what they can for their neighbours.”

“Providing the necessities they need to return to their homes is at the heart of the Salvation Army’s work in our area,” said Brian.

The decision to donate the large sum of money to the Salvation Army’s Flood Appeal was based on the Salvos track record and previous donations made by the Club to bushfire, flood, drought and cyclone appeals.

“At least 98 percent of money raised by the Salvation Army will be spent on relief and support services on the ground for those affected by the floods.

“The cost of governance, auditing, and reporting is capped at no more than two per cent of funds raised, which means almost all of the donation can be distributed by the Salvos where it’s needed most,” said the Twin Towns Chairman.

One of Twin Towns local clubs, Juniors in Fraser Drive, also chalked up some damage bill during the floods. Although Twin Towns is in the final stages of preparation for rebuilding this Club, the Board weighed up the options and decided to keep the doors open for its large following of local members.

Brian added that the Salvation Army Flood Appeal donation has come from funds earmarked for the Cudgen Leagues Club Amalgamation which did not proceed.

“This money was set aside late last year for community purposes and within a few short months, the opportunity has arisen to do just that.

“The Board was extremely happy to see some of the Cudgen funds repurposed to such a worthwhile cause,” said Brian.

Derek Brown from the Salvation Army gratefully accepts a cheque for $200,000 from Twin Towns Deputy Board Chairman, David Phillips.

Twin Towns responded to an urgent call-out for mattresses for residents of Mullumbimby who wanted to return to their homes to continue with clean-ups but their bedding had been destroyed. A truckload of new mattresses from Twin Towns resort supplies was quickly on its way.

In 2020-2021, Twin Towns distributed Club grants totalling $1.4 million and the Club's philanthropic arm, Twin Towns Services Community Foundation, contributed an additional $270,793 to financially support junior sport, charitable organisations and medical research.

Chairman Brian Brown said that throughout its history, Twin Towns has provided financial assistance to many major disaster relief funds, responding as quickly as possible to emergency situations both in Australia and overseas.

In late March, the Club also donated the Twin Towns Showroom, ticketing, staging and staff required for a comedy fundraising event, 'Stand Up for Flood Relief'.

Hosted by well-known Northern Rivers comedian Mandy Nolan, the line-up included Ellen Briggs, Kitty Flanagan, Wil Anderson and Tom Gleeson.

The concert was a complete sell-out, with over 1,000 people braving another night of flooding rain to attend the fundraiser.

More than $60,000 was raised on the night for those on the ground, working face-to-face in the community: It Takes a Town, Mullumbimby Neighbourhood Centre Emergency Hub, and Ballina Community Emergency Hub.

DRA TEMPORARY HEADQUARTERS

Disaster Relief Australia (DRA), an organisation which unites the skills and experience of Australia Defence Force veterans and emergency services specialists, temporarily moved their Incident Management Team to Twin Towns during March.

The Club provided large private office space, free of charge. From their new local base, the volunteer veterans were able to coordinate their recovery operations in the flood affected communities across the region.

The end of February couldn't come soon enough. Covid restrictions would be lifted, life as we knew it was returning to some form of normality; at least, that was the plan.

Fast forward a few days and look what happened. One of the worst storms imaginable hit our local area - the Northern Rivers and southern Gold Coast. The ferocity of the rain and hail which accompanied the storm was unbelievable. These conditions continued to drench our region for several more days and nights, leaving very few areas undamaged.

The number of individuals and communities impacted by this catastrophic event is unimaginable. I doubt we will ever truly know how many are still suffering the traumatic effects in the aftermath of these floods.

The real costs cannot be measured in dollars and cents alone. You can replace the physical parts of communities such as buildings and infrastructure, but you cannot repair the feelings of hopelessness and emotional fear that will take years to overcome. For some, the pain may never go away.

If you are aware of a member of your family or community that is feeling this way, please seek help for them from one of the many professional counsellors who are trained to assist in times of emotional uncertainty.

Many Twin Towns staff and Club members are also residents of the areas affected. Our thoughts are with you and your families as you attempt to return to life as usual in the months and years ahead.

The Board of Twin Towns has provided a cash donation to the Salvation Army to support the recovery in our local area. We are also assisting in other ways where possible.

During March, the Club provided Disaster Relief Australia with office space from which they could coordinate their emergency response teams. The work done by thousands of volunteers involved in the massive cleanup should not go unnoticed. For some, their commitment to providing support and logistics to those in need often put their own safety at risk.

What decisions will Local Councils, State and Federal Governments make to prevent or minimise the impacts of flooding in these areas in the future? I understand the difficulty of changing the definition of flood-prone areas or moving people from their current locations, but the question must be asked. How many times must local communities be confronted with these catastrophic events before someone makes the difficult decision that rebuilding in these flood ravaged areas is no longer a viable option.

Images across the media during this time was confronting. Pain and anguish were etched on the faces of residents trying to find a safe place to shelter. Where do these displaced people find refuge until their homes and communities are rebuilt, if that ever happens? The powers that be need to act now.

The Tweed Heads & Coolangatta RSL Sub-Branch will hold their Dawn Service on 25 April at 5.55am and the Main Service at 11am. Both services will be held at Chris Cunningham Park at Tweed Heads.

The service has not been held for a couple of years due to restrictions on gatherings. Please come along and be part of the service and pay tribute to our service personnel.

Many internal clubs conducted their AGMs last month, some for the first time in two years. It was great to see the members turn up and support their committees and become involved in the management of their particular club.

The Twin Towns Services Club Annual General Meeting will be held on Tuesday 17 May at the Main Club in Wharf Street at 7pm. I look forward to seeing you there.

Until next time.

Twin Towns Deputy Board Chairman David Phillips shares a coffee on the new deck with Marine Rescue Point Danger Unit Commander, Keith Smith.

FOUNDATION ASSISTS POINT DANGER MARINE RESCUE

A DONATION OF $13,500 FROM THE TWIN TOWNS SERVICES COMMUNITY FOUNDATION HAS GIVEN POINT DANGER MARINE RESCUE THE KICKSTART THEY NEEDED TO FURNISH THEIR NEW BEACHFRONT COFFEE DECK AT DURANBAH BEACH.

Previously, Marine Rescue volunteers raised funds from the sale of drinks and ice-creams from their Point Danger landmark headquarters high on the hill.

While renovations of this building are underway, the team moved their operations to their beachfront clubhouse below at Duranbah.

Twin Towns Deputy Chairman David Phillips said Marine Rescue had temporarily lost their ability to fundraise for their organisation.

“The team at Marine Rescue came up with a brilliant idea to better utilise the outdoor area at their Duranbah beach clubhouse.

“They developed a space where locals and holidaymakers could enjoy a morning coffee, watch the surfers and soak up the view from their deck.

“What was missing was sturdy outdoor furniture that could withstand the elements, and umbrellas to protect their guests from the sun. They soon discovered that none of this was cheap,” said David.

“We were happy they reached out to the Foundation for assistance.

“This goes beyond providing some money to buy outdoor furniture. This donation has helped provide the tools Marine Rescue needed to create a sustainable income stream for this financially challenged, not-for-profit organisation,” said David.

The Community Foundation members believe the concept and location of the coffee deck couldn't be more perfect. Add to that the enthusiasm and commitment from Marine Rescue volunteers and they believe it will be a winner.

Call in for a morning coffee at D'bah and check it out.

$2.8 MILLION LIFE-CHANGING KENO WIN AT CLUB BANORA

A Wollongong man returned from a holiday at Tweed Heads last month with more than a tan. He also took home the $2.8 million 10-spot Keno jackpot he won at Club Banora on Saturday 26 March.

The decision to go out for some food landed him at Club Banora, and the decision to play a game of Keno landed him with the life-changing win.

Driving back to the holiday home, they saw that the Keno 10 Spot had gone off at Banora. They weren't sure if it was them but eventually it clicked, and he says they went 'crazy'!

Congratulations from everyone at Club Banora on taking out the biggest win EVER at one of Twin Towns three Clubs.

The second biggest Keno win was a $2.3 million 10-spot jackpot at Juniors a few years back. Could it be time for a hat trick? With both Banora and Juniors landing a big Keno win, could it be Twin Towns' turn next?

FRIDAY HAPPY HOUR AT 1ST ON WHARF TAVERN AT TWIN TOWNS HAS PROVED SO POPULAR WITH MEMBERS AND LOCALS, TWIN TOWNS DECIDED TO KEEP IT GOING ON GOOD FRIDAY.

Happy Hour drink prices are easy on the wallet and guaranteed to put a smile on your dial. A schooner of draught beer will set you back just $5. Selected bubbles, red or white wine are $5 too.

Spend a day at the beach on Good Friday, then roll into the Tavern for Happy Hour from 4pm to 6pm. Grab some dinner while you're there. All your favourites are on the menu.

Make Good Friday Happy Hour your Easter catch-up with friends or family. There's live sport on the MEGAscreen and always loads of atmosphere. Outdoor seating is available too.

Slip into 1st on Wharf Tavern nice and early on Sunday 10 April to grab the best seats for this UFC blockbuster between Alexander Volkanovski and the Korean Zombie.

Although Volkanovski has never been one to get involved in the usual trash-talking, that doesn't mean the Aussie won't defend himself when he's been disrespected.

Like when the Korean Zombie branded him "the most boring champion ever". Two years on and Volkanovski, who still has the belt around his waist, has never forgotten it.

And here's what we know about the Korean Zombie. His name is Jung Chan-sung, who's said to have been a natural fighter from a young age. Bullied at school for his slight build, his aunt took him to a local gym when he was 14 to toughen him up.

Jung trained in kickboxing, before moving onto judo and Brazilian jiu jitsu.

At 18 he joined the Korean Navy and excelled in taekwondo. The final switch to MMA came two years later and he has been fighting professionally since 2007.

He earned the Zombie nickname because of his ability to walk forward and fight aggressively, no matter the situation. Jung is renowned for his toughness and never-say-die attitude in the octagon.

This UFC fight simply has to be enjoyed amongst a big raucous crowd at the Tavern, cheering on the Aussie, soaking up the atmosphere and sharing a few jugs. Don't miss your chance to get amongst the action as it all unfolds on the 5.4 metre MEGAscreen! Starts at 12pm.

BLOKES, BOOKS AND BEERS

BLOKES, BOOKS AND BEERS AT 1ST ON WHARF TAVERN GOT OFF TO A FLYING START IN MARCH WITH A GREAT ROLL-UP OF 'BLOKES' GETTING TOGETHER FOR A FEW BEERS AND A CHAT ABOUT THE BOOKER PRIZE-WINNING BOOK, SHUGGIE BAIN.

Blokes, Books and Beers is on again on Wednesday 27 April from 7pm to 8.30pm. The get-togethers are designed for members and locals seeking connection with other men and the support that comes with a social chat amongst friends.

Twin Towns Staff & Customer Care Ambassador Marty Thompson shared some insight into April's book, Plum.

"Plum is a funny yet deeply moving novel by award-winning writer and director, Brendan Cowell.

"It's about Peter 'The Plum' Lum, a 48-year-old, former NRL star, who lives with his son and girlfriend in Cronulla.

"Life is pretty cruisy until one day he suffers an epileptic fit and discovers he has a brain disorder, the result of the thousand-or-so head knocks he took on the footy field over 20 years.

"He's forced to make some changes or face dire consequences. Along the way, Peter discovers he's a poet. It's definitely full of surprises," said Marty.

It's not a pre-requisite to read the book each month, there are no set rules, no age limits, and it's all about time well spent. Participants can purchase a beer or whatever they like from the bar and settle in to enjoy the conversation with the group.

Come along to the next Blokes, Books & Beers night at the Tavern and meet the crew. It's all about enjoying a relaxing night amongst friends.
