EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST INVITED FOR DEVELOPMENT SITE AT CLUB BANORA

The recent appearance of a real estate sign at the tennis courts at Club Banora has piqued the interest of locals, who are all asking the question, "What's for sale?"

For sale is a 3.02 hectare parcel of land, the filled area adjoining the golf course. The area has long been slated for future development of Club Banora with a range of complementary opportunities investigated over the years.

At an Extraordinary General Meeting on 12 December 2019, members passed a Special Resolution to deem this area, earmarked for future development, 'non-core' property under Section 41E of the Registered Clubs Act.

This enabled the Board to make commercial decisions on the future use of this land when the time was right, based on the Club Banora masterplan and strategic planning for growth and diversification of the Clubs.

Twin Towns Board Chairman Brian Brown said the Clubs and facilities offered by the Twin Towns group are the result of solid, long-term planning and execution in a considered way, one that matches the evolution of the area.

"It's imperative for Twin Towns to grow and invest in their businesses to increase their financial sustainability and viability in the long term.

"As a Board, we are continually evaluating, redefining and reshaping the Club's assets to achieve the best possible outcomes for members.

"We believe now is the time to move forward with the sale of this land and have called for expressions of interest, potentially for a seniors' living community or aged care facility," said Brian.

The parcel of land adjoins and overlooks the Club Banora golf course and lake. The sale of the property is jointly managed by Savills and Republik Property.

LOADS OF LAUGHS TO LEND A HAND

Three community organisations recently received just under $20,000 each, thanks to Mandy Nolan's Stand Up for Flood Relief Concert in the Twin Towns Showroom.

Ballina Rotary, It Takes a Town and the Mullumbimby District Neighbourhood Centre now have these additional funds to help people impacted by the floods.

Mandy said when she reached out to friends and comedians Wil Anderson, Kitty Flanagan, Tom Gleeson and Ellen Briggs, the brief was simple.

"We were going to raise money for people impacted by floods. It had to go straight to them.

"The organisations who received the money have programs in place to deliver gift vouchers for fuel, groceries, furniture and white goods, on the ground, to those who need them most.

"I love this because people can use their vouchers when they are ready, plus they get to make their own choices about what they need," said Mandy.

Mandy also extended a huge thanks to Twin Towns.

"There is nowhere else in the region that could have held that many people in one room.

"It's a beautiful thing when we use our skills to work together for the good of the community. It's the best."

Dave Harmon from Ballina Rotary and Mandy Nolan called in to thank Board Chairman Brian Brown (centre) for Twin Towns support of the Flood Relief Concert.

TAKE YOUR MUM TO TWINNIES

You may have a Mother's Day reminder in your phone but have you made those all-important plans yet?

It's only a week away so time to figure out what you're doing to make sure it's a special day for mum, grandma, your awesome wife or partner.

If you are heading to Twin Towns, Flame Bistro is the perfect choice for a family-sized, round the table get-together or Orient for authentic Asian favourites. Both are on Level 1.

If the weather is great, how about treating Mum to relaxed waterfront dining and drinks on the Harbour Terrace Balcony. Order meals from Amigos Mexican express cantina or pizzas from the Pizzeria and have them delivered to your table.

Weather permitting, the smoker BBQ will be fired up for Mother's Day lunch. Kick back with a platter of whole BBQ prime cuts to share, served with all the accompaniments.

Be sure to raise a glass or two to celebrate mum on the day. A cocktail jug might be her beverage of choice, a nice bottle of wine, or there's the $10 members jugs if she's a mum who enjoys a nice cold beer.

To dine on the Harbour Terrace Balcony, get in early for the best seats.

Blokes, Books and Beers at 1st on Wharf Tavern returns on Wednesday 25 May from 7pm to 8.30pm.

The monthly get-togethers are designed for members and locals seeking connection with other men and the support that comes with a social chat amongst friends.

May's book, Force of Nature, will be the topic of conversation at the next Blokes, Books and Beers.

Force of Nature is the second novel by author Jane Harper. Her first was the award-winning novel, The Dry, which became the storyline of a film starring Aussie actor Eric Bana.

BLOKES, BOOKS AND BEERS

In Force of Nature, Jane has returned to the unforgiving territory of the Australian bush. This time the setting is a fictional nature reserve outside Melbourne, popular with executives in search of a corporate bonding experience.

Five women set out on a camping trip, but only four of them emerge from the reserve, bruised and traumatised. The fifth woman is missing and a huge search begins.

It's another suspenseful thriller and critics say Jane's latest novel it is even more impressive than The Dry. You will have to read it to find out and no doubt, comparisons will be drawn at the next Blokes, Books and Beers.

It doesn't matter if you don't get the chance to read the book ahead of the night and there are no set rules or no age limits. Participants can purchase a beer or whatever they like from the bar and settle in to enjoy a conversation about the book with the group.

Come along to the next Blokes Books and Beer night at the Tavern and meet the crew.

Morning tea is on the house but a gold coin donation for Guide Dogs Australia will be gratefully accepted.

Marty says there will be some 'fun' prizes on offer each week but it's not just about winning.

"We want people to walk away with a 'winning feeling' because they've had a great time and enjoyed some laughs along the way."

STRASSMAN'S CHOCOLATE DIET

American comedian and ventriloquist David Strassman is renowned for creating astounding mechanical and robotic devices that make his puppets seem like live, thinking, talking, autonomous creatures. If you're yet to meet Strassman's puppets, you won't forget them in a hurry.

Ted E. Bare seems quite cute and cuddly but there's another side to him. He's adept at gaining sympathy and affection and has the ability to fabricate lies to fulfil his basic needs. Ted E. loves to assume the role of 'victim' and uses his suffering to gain attention.

Ted E.'s best friend and worst enemy is Chuck Wood, an evil, sarcastic, angry and selfish puppet who's stuck in the frame of a 12-year-old boy. Chuck is a leering, foul-mouthed sociopath who has the ability to say and do the things we all wish we could but can't because of social norms.

You'll also meet Kevin, a Tabbitt from a planet called Rigel 3. Kevin accidentally found planet Earth in his travels and decided to stay for a while to study humans.

Angel (Autonomous Neuron Generating Experimental Lifeform, circa 2055) is a personal assistant, computer, Blackberry, landline, fax, printer, scanner and full tea and coffee service. Don't mess with Angel as she carries 220 Volts AC.

Tickets for Strassman's jaw-achingly funny performance at 6pm on Sunday 19 June in the Showroom are $59.90 + booking fee. This show is rated 12+. Book now.

FLOTSAM ON THE BIG SCREEN AT TWIN TOWNS

THE INAUGURAL FLOTSAM SURF FILM AND PHOTOGRAPHY FESTIVAL WASHES OVER THE SOUTHERN GOLD COAST FROM 1-8 MAY AND TO CELEBRATE ITS ARRIVAL, THE CREATIVE SIDE OF SURF CULTURE IS LIGHTING UP TWIN TOWNS HUGE 17 METRE BY 5 METRE SCREEN ON THE EXTERIOR OF THE BUILDING.

Along with a collection of images and stills from photographic exhibitions and films, a 10-minute video of local waves from various film makers will feature on the screen throughout the night.

ANZAC DAY 2022

Despite cold and windy conditions, thousands braved the weather to honour our Australian and New Zealand service men and women at the ANZAC Day Dawn Service at Chris Cunningham Park at Twin Towns.

Surprisingly, the rain held off throughout the Service up until the final moments, and the huge crowd made a hasty retreat to the Club for hot coffee and breakfast.

Tweed Heads & Coolangatta RSL Sub-Branch Secretary Norm Henstridge said they were thrilled to see the numbers in attendance, after the disappointment of having to cancel the past two ANZAC Day Services due to Covid restrictions.

An even bigger crowd gathered for the Main Service at 11am. More than 1,000 local school children also braved the weather to march in the parade alongside veterans. RSL Sub-branch organisers say attendance this year exceeded all expectations.

One of the biggest crowds in history attend the ANZAC Day 2022 Dawn Service
