RESHAPING CLUB BANORA

AS PART OF THE NEW CLUB BANORA MASTERPLAN, THE OUTDOOR AREAS SURROUNDING CLUB BANORA WILL BE TRANSFORMED WITH A SUITE OF FEATURES AND FACILITIES TO CATER FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY.

Twin Towns has appointed architects BGD (Bayden Goddard Design) to undertake a strategic review of the entire outdoor entertainment and family precincts.

This work will be integrated into the masterplans being developed by leading Sydney architectural and urban design firm, Dickson Rothchild.

CEO Rob Smith said they will work with the architects to achieve the best use of space for a raft of new recreational facilities.

“Our aim is to ensure the best contemporary offerings, with reinvented outdoor areas that suit the needs of the emerging young and dynamic Banora and Tweed communities.

“The plans are customer-led and are the outcome of extensive market research.

“The design will showcase the waterfront location with a new lakeside dining area, spacious lawns and gardens, an outdoor playground and huge outdoor LED screen, which can be viewed from the lawn and dining area.

“Mum and Dad can relax outdoors with a drink, order a meal from Slice & Fork and watch the footy or a premier sporting event, while the kids make the most of the new playground,” said Rob.

An area has been allocated for food trucks and pop-up dining on weekends and holidays to add diversity to existing dining options.

The first steps towards these improvements are currently underway, with the demolition of the Oasis Pools complex.

The 30+ year old pools were deemed by consultants and engineers in 2022 to be beyond repair because of major failures and safety concerns.

Twin Towns has since lobbied all levels of Government and local Council for funding to reinstate the pools.

Whilst no offers are currently on the table, if funding is received, the masterplan includes space allocations for an Olympic Pool and 25 metre learn-to-swim pool adjacent to where they were previously situated.

It will take around six weeks to remove the concrete pool shells and underground services, then fill and reinstate the area.

The project will get underway once approval is received from Tweed Shire Council.

A TREASURE-TROVE FOR THE MOST DISCERNING DRINKERS

Add a sophisticated edge to a night out at Twin Towns with a visit to Still & Barrel, an intimate speakeasy-style bar tucked away on the Mezzanine Level.

Now the cooler weather has kicked in, Still & Barrel is the perfect place to warm yourself up from the inside out with a soothing drop of whiskey, a nip of premium quality rum or your favourite Top Shelf spirit.

The star of the show at Still & Barrel is its worldly range of whiskey from famous distilleries across the Scottish regions, as well as Japan and Australia.

All up, over 400 premium spirits line the shelves at this bar, including rum, vodka, gin, tequila, cognac and more.

Twin Towns' Top Shelf range gives you the chance to try some of the world's finest drops by the glass, on the rocks or neat, from just $9.

Wine lovers aren't overlooked with over 40 international and Australian wines on the list.

There are some quite unique wines too if you are in the mood to spoil yourself.

Kick back, relax and clink a glass or two with your partner, family or friends. Whatever it is that makes your night truly special, we think you'll find it at Still & Barrel at Twin Towns.

Open Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights from 8.30pm.

CRAIG KICKBUSH

Raise a glass or two to some of Australia's best comedians in the intimate surrounds of Still & Barrel at Twin Towns. Bring along a broad sense of humour, and your friends of course!

Comedy on the Rocks is on the third Thursday of the month from 8pm.

First up on Thursday 20 July is a night of belly laughs with host Shayne Hunter and headliner Anne Ferguson Howe.

Anne has been entertaining audiences for almost two decades. This former London East Ender's bawdy sense of humour and broad cockney accent are infectious.

Her somewhat 'visual' descriptions of life, her experiences with beauty therapy, and struggles to find love, will have you in tears (of laughter).

Host and MC is Shayne Hunter, often described as an Australian comedy maverick.

This psychologist-slash-comedian is known for pushing the boundaries of his audience with his intellectually stimulating, and often manic, brand of humour.

Tickets for Comedy on the Rocks are $20. Limited spots available so bookings are essential! Book now!

You can also book online now for Comedy on the Rocks on 17 August (Fiona McGary and Steve Allison) and Thursday 21 September (Andrew Roper and Mark McConville).

LANEWAY COFFEE

If you're driving past Twin Towns or enjoying an early morning walk on Friday, Saturday or Sunday, swing by the laneway outside 1st on Wharf Tavern at Twin Towns and grab yourself a barista coffee.

A pop-up coffee cart will be onsite from 6am to 9.30am serving your favourite styles. Café lattes, cappuccinos, flat whites, short or long blacks, all made with award-winning Amore Coffee, are just $4 for standard and $5 for large.

Emergency workers from both sides of the border will get the discounted price of just $3 for a standard coffee or $4 for large. If you know any of our local emergency workers, be sure to let them know.

A selection of snacks and treats will also be available from the pop-up cart.

Look out for the flags outside the Tavern on the street level at Twin Towns.

Parking is available beneath the Twin Towns building in Wharf Street. Enter this carpark via Boundary Street.

1ST ON WHARF TAVERN

TRANSFORMATION

In late June, 1st on Wharf Tavern underwent renovations and you won't believe your eyes when you see the transformation.

The Tavern now has chic decor with timber panelling and wallpaper, upgraded lighting and furniture, and a bright and refreshing new vibe.

More on the renovations in August Club News, as well as an update on the new Ladies Lounge which is coming to the Tavern soon.

CHANGE TO GO-2 CONDITIONS

Some regular users have requested a change to the conditions of Twin Towns GO-2 transport service, which was introduced last year for the convenience of members.

Members in eligible suburbs can arrange a pickup from their home or holiday accommodation to travel to the Club, or vice versa, for just $20.

The $20 fee is returned as an e-voucher to spend on food and beverages.

Previously, members had seven days to use their $20 GO-2 vouchers. In response to members' requests, this has now been extended to 14 days.

If you drive to the Club and are unsure if you've had one too many drinks to get behind the wheel, grabbing a GO-2 is always a safer option.

It's easier to pick up the car the next day than risk your licence, or worse.

Find a list of eligible suburbs or book a GO-2 on the Twin Towns website or the Twin Towns app.

SUNDAY SEAFOOD SESH AT HARBOUR FRESH

Choose from three simple yet delicious seafood lunches that you can order and collect at Harbour Fresh and enjoy anywhere you choose within the Club.

Fish & Chips: Crispy ale-battered barramundi fillets, fries, tartare sauce & lemon wedges.

Seafood Chowder: Velvety chowder, bursting with flavours of the ocean, served in a crusty cob loaf.

Fisherman's pie: Fish, prawns & calamari in a creamy sauce, topped with mash & puff pastry.

At just $20 per person, including a schooner of standard beer, 150ml house wine or standard soft drink, the Sunday Seafood Sesh is the perfect opportunity to end next weekend on a high note.

Available every Sunday from 11.30am to 2pm.

*Conditions apply. Available limited time only.

Chicken Feast

WITH FRIENDS

FOLLOWING ON FROM THE HUGE SUCCESS OF THE GO-ANYWHERE, EAT-ANYWHERE SUNDAY SEAFOOD SESH, TWIN TOWNS INTRODUCES A SIMILAR NEW CONCEPT THIS MONTH, THE ROAST CHICKEN LUNCH OR DINNER MEAL DEAL.

Served in a takeaway banquet box, the Meal Deal can be enjoyed anywhere in the Club or take it home if you like.

The box includes a rotisserie chicken, four whole baked potatoes, a generous tub of slaw and four brioche buns, along with sides of BBQ sauce, smoky chipotle and sour cream.

Chefs use free-range chickens on the rotisserie so you can be assured you're getting a top-quality chook!

The Meal Deal is designed to feed up to four people and is excellent value at just $49, or less than $12.50 per person.

The best seats in the house for an al fresco chicken feast with friends are on the Harbour Terrace Balcony overlooking Jack Evans boat harbour. This area is 18+ so if you're bringing the kids, there is family-style seating in Flame.

The Chicken Meal Deal is available at Amigos from Wednesday to Sunday, lunch 11.30am to 2.30pm and dinner 5pm to 8.30pm.

H A R B O U R fresh SPECIALS

Harbour Fresh recently introduced rotating Chef's specials to keep the menu exciting, especially for the many regular diners who visit the restaurant weekly.

There are two Entrée specials in July - Spiced Grilled Haloumi and Seared Sashimi-grade Yellow Fin Tuna.

Main specials include the Porcini Dusted Beef Tenderloin with potato pav, sauteed greens and pinot jus and Braised Beef Short Ribs with mustard mash and chimichurri.

Seafood Linguine returns in July, due to its huge popularity last month. This beautiful pasta dish combines an assortment of perfectly cooked seafood, tossed through a white wine, garlic and dill cream sauce.

There are two dessert specials - Chocolate Crème Brûlée and an Infused Mango and Mint Parfait.

Harbour Fresh opens Thursday to Saturday for lunch and dinner. Click here to see the full menu or to book a table.

JUNIORS CHAMPIONS

Juniors Champions enjoyed another get-together in June, with the huge crowd spilling out from under the Pavilions into the carpark.

The outdoor area is all that remains after the main building was demolished to make way for a brand-new $12 million Club.

During construction, the get-togethers give Juniors regulars the chance to meet up with friends they don't get to see quite as often as they used to.

Along with free drinks, the Champions downed over 200 regular-size hot meat pies and each left with another special gift – a Juniors Champion hoodie.

As the arvo turned a little cool-ish, many Champs discovered just how warm and cosy their new hoodies are!

The new Juniors is expected to reopen in November 2023.

Champions were excited to see how quickly the construction of their new Juniors Club is progressing.

NATHAN GETS A TASTE OF THE PERFECT PLATE AT TWIN TOWNS

TIME IS RUNNING OUT TO CAST YOUR VOTE IN THE CLUBSNOW 2023 PERFECT PLATE AWARDS AND BE IN THE RUNNING TO WIN A $100 DINING VOUCHER OR ONE OF TWO FOODIE GETAWAYS VALUED AT $3,500.

Diners have until Saturday 8 July to visit Harbour Fresh at Twin Towns to taste and vote on the spectacular Perfect Plate seafood dish created by Twin Towns Executive Chef David Organ.

ClubsNSW Ambassador, Nathan Hindmarsh, spent the past month visiting participating Clubs across the State, tasting and voting on their Perfect Plate entries.

The former Parramatta and international star stopped by Twin Towns to meet the Executive Chef and try the fresh, local trawler King prawns, wrapped in Jamon Serrano, with honey-chilli baked beets and a burnt butter orange and sage cream sauce.

"It's come a long way, Club food," said Nathan.

"There's so much variety these days and that's why people keep coming back to their Clubs because they're a great place to go out and have a feed."

And the verdict?

Nathan said David's King prawn dish was "Delicious".

"The orange sage cream, just a nice hint of orange. The goat cheese with baby beets - there was a great marriage there. A good meal all round."

Get into Harbour Fresh and try it for yourself!

The Perfect Plate dish has a unique QR code which you'll find near the counter. Scan it and submit a score between one and five.

Harbour Fresh opens for lunch and dinner, Thursday to Saturday. See website for opening times or to book your table.

HOT AUGUST NIGHT IN SEPTEMBER

After a sellout show at Twin Towns last year and full houses across Australia, Peter Byrne returns to the Showroom in September.

It's over 50 years since Neil Diamond stepped on stage at the Greek Theatre in Los Angeles with a symphony orchestra and recorded what is still regarded today as one of the greatest live albums of all time.

Now that album, Hot August Night, will be re-created in its original format by Peter and the 30-piece Queensland Pops Orchestra.

Featuring classic songs such as Crunchy Granola Suite, Cherry Cherry, Sweet Caroline and I am I Said, Peter will treat the audience to a concert performance packed with the same spontaneous energy and vocal brilliance of Neil Diamond.

Don't miss your chance to experience this spectacular live concert.

Twin Towns Showroom, Saturday 23 September, 8pm. Tickets from $75 + booking fee. Book now.

THE EXPLODING UNIVERSE OF ED KUEPPER

Songwriter, guitarist and The Saints co-founder, Ed Kuepper, tours in September, performing the first full live band show of his solo material since 2009.

Featuring Ed's legendary sparring partner Mark Dawson on drums, Sunnyboys bassist Peter Oxley, celebrated pianist Alister Spence and brass maestro Eamon Dilworth, The Exploding Universe will tackle the best of Kuepper's recent vinyl reissues of Electrical Storm and Honey Steel's Gold.

"Friends, as you know, I've been full of happy announcements recently but announcing the shows I'll be doing with this bunch of nifty musical dudes is one of my happiest," said Ed.

"We'll be including some of the deeper cuts hardly heard since back in the day and we're also going to be hammering through a fine selection of the many chart-topping hits that have become associated with me," said Ed.

Fans will tell you that Ed Kuepper shows are always a treat but this one is especially unmissable.

WENDY MATTHEWS & GRACE KNIGHT

WE'RE GOING TO GRACELAND - THE SONGS OF PAUL SIMON

Grace Knight and Wendy Matthews are two of the most iconic and beloved singers in Australian music. They're both multi-award-winning artists with a swag of Countdown, MTV and ARIA awards between them, along with a bundle of platinum albums under their belt.

In their first show together, and for a limited time, Wendy and Grace present the songs of one of the world's greatest living songwriters.

Paul Simon has written some of the best-known and acclaimed songs in popular music, ranging from Simon & Garfunkel gems like Sound of Silence, The Boxer, Homeward Bound and Bridge Over Troubled Water, to his solo classics like You Can Call Me Al, Late in the Evening, Diamonds on the Soles of Her Shoes and Graceland.

PSEUDO ECHO

RETURNS TO TWIN TOWNS

After sellout shows across the country, Pseudo Echo returns to Twin Towns with their Ultimate Tour 2023. This coincides with the release of the Ultimate double album and DVD chronicling their expansive forty-year music career.

Music Pioneers of the '80s with their avant-garde look and electro sound, Pseudo Echo introduced audiences to a new sound in the era of pub rock.

Making history along the way, Pseudo Echo became the first unrecorded band to appear on the legendary Australian music show, Countdown.

Their Twin Towns show features a six-piece line-up, performing a hit-filled two-hour set, including Funky Town, Listening, Don't Go, Living in a Dream and more.

1ST ON WHARF
TAVERN

The undisputed featherweight title is on the line when Aussie Alexander Volkanovski, MMA Fighting's No. 2 ranked pound-for-pound fighter in the world, takes on Yair Rodriguez from Mexico.

Volkanovski, who is undefeated as a featherweight in the UFC, is looking for his fifth consecutive title defence after falling short against Islam Makhachev in his bid for two-division glory in February.

He'll have to get past the lanky and experienced Rodriguez, who captured the interim title with a second-round submission of Josh Emmett.

Volkanovski says he is leaving nothing to chance ahead of what he describes as the most dangerous fight of his career.

Catch all the action live from 12pm on Sunday 9 July at 1st on Wharf Tavern. Get in early for the best seats in front of the 5.4 metre MEGAscreen.

Check the website for more world title fights coming to the Tavern in July.

LAST CHANCE FOR AN ORIGIN AT THE TAVERN PACKAGE

There is just one more chance for members to win a State of Origin VIP package at 1st on Wharf Tavern for Game 3 on 12 July.

Queensland may have already taken out the series but that won't stop you enjoying premium seats at a reserved table for four people in front of the MEGAscreen at the newly refurbished Tavern. Plus, you'll have $250 to spend on food and beverages.

To get a ticket in the draw, purchase any Tooheys or XXXX product between now and 5 July. If your name is drawn, the Promotions team will be in touch to organise your table.

Purchase a Tooheys or XXXX product at the Tavern on the night of the games for the chance to win a NSW or Queensland jersey.

Congratulations to last month's winner, lucky member Neil Ahrens who won the seats for the second State of Origin.
